

This form is intended to record weight loss or gain to clients in a community care facility. Changes in weight may indicate a health problem. Unusual weight change should be reported to the physician. This record should be maintained in the client's folder.

[illegible]